LEAVE OF ABSENCE IN TERM TIME- REMINDER

If you are choosing to take your child on holiday during term time, we respectfully request that you are honest with us about this and also refrain from asking your child to lie about their whereabouts when they return to school. Sadly, this does happen on occasion and the truth almost always comes to light.

Any request for leave of absence in term time must always be placed in writing to the Headteacher. Each request is then considered individually, by the Headteacher, to establish whether it is considered 'exceptional circumstances', and therefore can be an authorised absence, or whether it will be an unauthorised absence.

Please do provide us with as much information as possible when making any requests so that we may consider the full circumstances.
