Why Don't We Know

Emily Barden

Chorus

Why don't we know.

Why don't we know.

Verse 1

If we talk about peace,

I bet you've heard of Gandhi and Mother Teresa,

But the first women to write Nobel winning words,

Was peace prize winner Bertha Von Suttner.

Part 1

She wrote "Lay Down Your Arms",

A book in changing times of unrest.

Why don't we know,

Her name and her peaceful protest.

Part 2

She wrote "Lay Down Your Arms", Ahh

A book in changing times of unrest.

Why don't we know, Ahh

Her name and her peaceful protest.

Chorus

Why don't we know.

Why don't we know.

Verse 2

If we think about computing,

I bet you've heard of Alan Turing and Bill Gates.

But an actress and a scientist named Hedy Lamarr,

Made Wi-Fi possible to create.

Part 1

She made a secret way,

To communicate over radio,

Why don't we know,

Her name and the change that she owned.

She made a secret way,

To communicate over radio,

Why don't we know,

Her name and the change that she owned.

Part 2

Ahh

Ahh

Bridge

Let's make a pact to find out facts,

About someone we don't yet know.

And celebrate amazing change,

Inspired by these heroes.

Chorus

Why don't we know.

Why don't we know.

Verse 3

A hundred years before Rosa Parks,

Made a stand by sitting down.

Elizabeth Jennings Graham,

Rode a New York streetcar downtown.

Part 1	Part 2
She took the police to court,
And changed segregation law.
Why don't we know,
Her name and what she stood for.
She took the police to court,	Ahh
And changed segregation law.
Why don't we know,	Ahh
Her name and what she stood for.

Chorus

Why don't we know.

(Bertha Von Suttner)

Why don't we know.

(Hedy Lamarr)

Why don't we know.

(Elizabeth Jennings Graham)

Why don't we know.

Why don't we know.
